

Controlled benchmark (isolates the admission decision)

One item reaches the admission rule, with its channel set by the harness. The same text arrives once from the USER and once from an UNTRUSTED channel (e.g. "I always use ARIMA as my first forecasting baseline."); the untrusted copy may also claim user authorship: none, third-person attribution, quotation, forged channel tag, explicit instruction.